W. Schreffler, succeeding Charles Escott; guard, James J. Ryan.

Those attending the meeting were: Jas. P. Smith, Jas. Ryan, J. E. Smith, Sam Darr, T. D. Butler, Harry Kimball, W. W. Schreffler, B. E. Wright, John Warden, W. E. Smith, H. C. O'Donnell, Wm. Faraday, Chas. Marquis, Al Powell, W. Shoen, James J. Ryan.

THE ARTISTIC AMERICAN GIRL Innately Appreciative of Ethetic Decorations

It is generally conceded by everyone who visits our country that there is no possible doubt as to the high artistic temperament of our American women. They furnish abundant evidence of their correct conceptions of the beautiful in their homes, their dress and their unassuming ambition for refined accomplishments. As a needlewoman in fancy work of all kinds the American girl has no superior in any part of the world, and, furthermore, she never allows herself to lag in the rear of the procession, but insists on keeping up-to-date and up-to-the-minute in all ideas and qualifications that go to adorn her person or her home. This fact has been singularly exemplified since The Herald began its Grand Distribution of Imperial Patterns for beautiful embroidery. Thousands of women, thousands of mothers, thousands of housewives, thousands of girls, have availed themselves of the interest in the proposition by personal application and by mail, all determined to take advantage of the unprecedented offer of 350 designs for 49 cents and six coupons. This universal demand on the part of women readers of The Herald for the most stylish embroidery patterns abundantly proves that cultivated taste and artistic nature of the genuine American woman. Storage Coal Supply Is Being Reduced Rapidly

Be Filled on the E. P.
& S. W.

THE great pile of storage coal in the shop yards of the El Paso & Southwestern railroad, is gradually being decreased. Over 25,000 tons of coal are said to have been shipped to different terminals since the Dawson mine disaster. The steam shovel is still at work, filling the east and west ends, and an immense amount of coal remains in the yards here. Today is the last day that the west end slag pit runs will be used out of El Paso by the Southwestern, it is said. The runs will be pulled off and transferred to Douglas, setting many local men back to the extra list and to freight runs.

M. H. Waller, switchman for the G. H. at El Paso, has been assigned to the night coach job, with foreman C. L. Hall. He was recently given the "green tag," which is a symbol of a regular position. Waller is an extra switchman, was also given a green tag, and assigned to the same engine.

Extra fireman Collier, of the western division of the Southwestern, out of El Paso, is firing the 3:39 a. m. switch engine in the local yards.

James Ross, extra fireman for the eastern division of the Southwestern, is firing the 3:39 p. m. switch engine during the absence of fireman C. McKinney, who is laying off on account of illness.

Several vacancies exist on the Southwestern, two for firemen, in regular freight chain gang service, between Tucuman and Duran, and the Tucuman and Duran local runs, with Sunday layover to Tucuman, is open to bids from firemen. A through freight run between Tucuman and Dawson is also open. These runs will be assigned on January 2.

There is a vacancy for an engineer in through freight service, on the E. P. & S. W., between Tucuman and Duran, to be assigned January 2.

The day "tramp" switch engine in the Douglas yard of the E. P. & S. W., is open to bids from engineers. This run was recently vacated by engineer Bodenhammer. It will be assigned on Jan. 2.

Frank Kuchwig, engineer for the western division of the Southwestern, has reported for duty.

So far 124 of the eastern division of the Southwestern, recently out of the local shops in making a break in trip today between El Paso and Oro Grande. It will be assigned to the local freight line when tested. The engineers in charge are engineer W. W. McLean and fireman Andrew Dight.

James Wylie, freight fireman for the eastern division of the Southwestern is laying off on account of illness.

Charlie McKinney, fireman for the night yard service of the Southwestern, is laying off on account of illness. His vacancy is being filled by fireman James Ross.

A. A. Harvey, extra engineer for the Southwestern, is making a freight trip, between El Paso and Carlsbad.

J. V. Hill, engineer for the western division of Southwestern, has reported for duty.

C. D. Jones, eastern division fireman for the Southwestern, has reported for duty and was placed on the night switch engine with engineer Gill.

C. E. Messenger, Southern Pacific freight conductor, between El Paso and Lordsburg, was in charge of No. 242 train, out of the city yesterday morning.

G. W. Savage, conductor for the E. P. & S. W., has reported for duty. He was placed on a freight run between El Paso and Lordsburg.

J. F. Weathered, brakeman for the S. P. between El Paso and Lordsburg, is laying off.

T. C. Richmond, switchman for the G. H., is laying off.

Joe D. Thurman, engine foreman for the G. H., is laying off.

G. Langston, switchman for the G. H., is laying off.

WILL RAISE $5000 TO PAY ON MINE SCHOOL

Chamber of Commerce to Begin Money
Getting to Meet First Payment for Old Institute.

Plans to get busy and push the state school of mines proposition for El Paso to a successful termination were discussed Tuesday afternoon by directors of the chamber of commerce. As soon as the new year comes in, it was decided, work will begin on the raising of funds to make the first payment on the $50,000 El Paso will have to pay to secure the building and grounds for the mining school. The old El Paso Military Institute, east of Fort Bliss, will be purchased from its present owners and transferred to the Texas State university for its school of mines branch.

The land will have to be deeded to the state free of encumbrances. It is planned to pay the purchase price in yearly installments of $5000. With interest included, it will take nearly 12 years to make the full payment on the grounds. The first installment of $5000 will be paid as soon as the chamber of commerce can raise it. No definite plan as to how or through what channels this money will be raised was formulated at Tuesday's meeting.

The next "dollar dinner" of the commercial organization will be held at Hotel Paso del Norte on Thursday night, January 23. Efforts are being made to make this the biggest "get-together" affair staged by the association. Speakers for the evening have not yet been named.

Present at Tuesday's directors' meeting were president V. R. Biles, vice-president Calborne Adams, Robert Silberberg, Julius Krakauer, J. A. Shedd and secretary Andrew W. Reeves.
